

Davis-Monthan AFB, AZ

Flight Medicine Physician

The Flight Surgeon will provide outpatient services to eligible members assigned to the Flight Medicine clinic at Davis-Monthan AFB, Tucson, AZ.

Period of Performance: 01 Oct 2021 - 30 Sept 2022

Contract Hours: 1920

Qualifications

- Successful completion of an accredited Aerospace Medicine Residency and served as a Air Force Chief of Aerospace is preferred but a Physician having served in Flight Medicine for at least 1 year may be acceptable if approved by the Chief of Aerospace Medicine. Other Department of Defense (DOD) and civilian trained Flight Surgeons may also be considered, but require Chief of Aerospace Medicine approval
- Current board certification by one of the following boards: American Board of Preventive Medicine (Aerospace Medicine and/or Occupational Medicine), American Board of Family Medicine, American Board of Emergency Medicine, American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians, or board certified by the American Osteopathic Association through the American Osteopathic Board of Preventive Medicine. Providers certified by Non-Aerospace Medicine Boards must demonstrate successful completion of an Aerospace Medicine Primary Course. General Medical Officers with at least 1 year of flight medicine clinic experience assigned as a 48X duty Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC) or other branch of equivalent will be also be considered.
- License cannot be under investigation nor have any adverse actions pending from a State Board or national licensing/certification agency.
- Possess and maintain current certification in Basic Life Support (BLS), Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) in accordance with 355 MDG policies.
- Working knowledge of computer operations and proficiency in the use of basic word processing, data entry and automated medical records.

Core Duties

- Provide healthcare to beneficiaries assigned to the Flight Medicine Clinic.
- Maintain a program of comprehensive health to include preventive medicine, behavioral sciences and community health.
- May become the primary care manager (PSM) to a panel of patients. As a PCM, the flight surgeon will be the primary person responsible for the management of the health and wellness of his/her assigned patients.
- Examine patients, formulate differential diagnostic plans, defines and orders required diagnostic testing.
- Interpret examination findings and test results and implements treatment plans.
- Determines need for consultation and assist in medical care and treatment provided at the specialist
- Approved/Disapproved subspecialty referrals
- Answer patient telephone consults with the assistance of clinic staff
- Provide preventive care
- Provide appropriate military specific documentation such as (but not limited to) narrative summaries for Medical Evaluation Boards, aeromedical waivers and medical profile paperwork
- The Chief of Aerospace Medicine will make specific duties/patient care assignments
- Adequately diagnose and treat a wide-range of adult acute and chronic diseases and injuries, including but not limited to:

Skin
Head
Eyes
Ears
Nose
Throat
Neck
Cardiovascular System
Psychiatric and Behavioral Health

Pulmonary System
Gastrointestinal System
Musculoskeletal System
Genitourinary System
Reproductive System
Lymphatic System
Central Nervous System
Endocrine System

Argent Technologies, LLC

- Adequately diagnose and treat a wide-range of pediatric (ages 15-18) acute and chronic diseases and injuries, including but not limited to, conditions of the:

Skin	Normal Age Appropriate Development Assessments
Head	Pulmonary System
Eyes	Gastrointestinal System
Ears	Musculoskeletal System
Nose	Genitourinary System
Throat	Reproductive System
Neck	Lymphatic System
Cardiovascular System	Central Nervous System
Psychiatric and Behavioral Health	Endocrine System
Well Child Checks

- Adequately perform medical procedures to include, but not limited to, the following:
 - Secure and maintain adequate airway to include endotracheal intubation
 - Simple minor surgical procedures: punch biopsies, excision of skin lesions
 - Simple abscess incision and drainage
 - Nail trephination
 - Sling or swath injuries
 - Suture simple lacerations
 - Suture removalCryotherapy
 - Nebulizer Treatment
 - Cultures (throat, wound)
 - Remove ocular, nasal, and ear foreign bodies
 - Cleaning of ears by flush technology
 - Reduce Simple dislocations and fractures, when appropriate
 - Bandaging of sprains, minor burns, and minor lacerations
 - Perform venous punctures for lab studies and interpret results

- Administer intravenous, intramuscular, and subcutaneous medication as appropriate
- Stabilize and evaluate cervical spine injuries as appropriate
- Splint and stabilize traumatic injuries to extremities
- Ensure a safe work environment and employee safe work habits
- Prepare records and reports as required in support of services rendered in accordance with established procedures
- Attend and participate in patient care reports, patient care conferences, team conferences, professional staff conferences, and other appropriate professional activities only to the extent that such attendance and participation is relative to his/her assigned cases and/or performance of services as determined by the supervisor.
- Focus on primary health care requirements. Flight medicine providers may be used to sign Return-To-Fly 2992s, waiver, or fly preventive health assessments only if they meet the qualifications criteria listed in the Civilian Flight Medicine Physician Performance Work Statement and approved by the Air Force Medical Operations Agency (AFMOA/SGPF). Flight medicine providers will not fly (as part of their duties), respond to in-flight emergencies, after-hours call or Hazardous Materials (HAZMAT). Flight medicine providers will not participate in exercises beyond the scope of medical care, will not deploy, and will not be utilized as Squadron Medical Elements

I have read and fully understand the minimum qualifications and duties and will comply with all requirements under this contract service.

(Print Name)

(Signature)

(Date)